

3rd Cavendish Square Conference for Trainees in the Psychoanalytic Psychotherapies

King's Fund
11-13 Cavendish Square
London W1

Saturday, 15 May 2010
9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

This conference is for those currently engaged in clinical trainings with organisations that are members of the CPJA Section of the United Kingdom Council for Psychotherapy (UKCP) and the British Psychoanalytic Council (BPC).

This is an opportunity to meet and talk with people from across the psychoanalytic spectrum. The day will consist of panels with psychoanalytic papers on clinical, theoretical, philosophical, historical, social and cultural themes given by fellow trainees and students.

If you would like to write a paper for the conference, please see the attached sheet for guidance on how to submit a proposal.

The conference fee of £50 (fifty pounds), includes refreshments and lunch. Booking is essential.

For further details contact David Henderson (020-3213 0107).
